"We communicate with you via our websites and offer you the best in on-line services: on-line information, on-line marketing, on-line weddings, on-line reservations, Copy writing and Design, submitted via email at affordable prices with your requirements processed in time for your deadlines."

www.weddingsinafrica.com

- Visitors have the choice of contacting wedding service providers, wedding venues, honey moon destinations and tour operators that advertise on the website directly – therefore the client will liaise and book directly with you.
- We offer you a listing of 500 words, logo, pictures, hyperlinks to url, specials, packages and more. In addition you can send news, articles and updates as often as you like and these will get posted on the site at no extra charge. You will automatically be added to our preferred service providers list which is sent out monthly with our newsletters to approximately 5000 contacts.
- We offer on line wedding coordination if required by the bride and then we promote all existing advertisers and will liaise directly with you the venue, destination, service provider and operator.
- Fees charged for the advertising on the website are kept to a minimum thereby allowing service providers an affordable opportunity to market in the industry and allowing us to continue to create the No 1 information portal for weddings on the African continent.
- We are aiming to ensure updated news, articles and information is not only monthly but weekly and preferably daily. Your support in sending your newsletters, articles, views and ideas is absolutely essential to ensure the continued success of the site.
- Please also refer us to your preferred suppliers we would love to have them join us in support of this valuable tool.
